PROGRAM OVERVIEW

In a recent survey by the renowned Katz Business School, recruiters from companies with more than 50,000 employees said that communication skills were cited as the single more important decisive factor in choosing managers. Another main factor contributing to job success is the ability to work with others, which also requires communication skills. Being able to communicate effectively is therefore essential if you want to build a successful career.

To do this, you must understand what your message is, what audience you are sending it to, and how it will be perceived. Effective communication is only successful when you convey your thoughts and ideas effectively. You must also weigh-in the diverse circumstances surrounding your communications, such as situational and cultural context.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand a paradigm of communicating with people
- Realise that to obtain results through managing people, you need to communicate in an assertive manner. This starts with yourself.
- Understand your own dominant style of communication bridges for better relationships
- Choose empathy for better team results
- Be aware of each person as individuals and their rights
- Understand the need for maintaining integrity
- Be assertive in giving or receiving criticism
- Be assertive when need to confront, persuade or negotiate with others
- Develop positive win-win attitudes
- Affirm personal integrity and values for communication

METHODOLOGY

- Training will include mix of lectures, role plays and activities, using the Integrative Learning System (ILS) approach to internalize the learning of the workshop. Technologies used will include Multiple Intelligences, Interactive Learning and the Dunn & Dunn's Learning Styles. EQ (Emotional Intelligence) will be emphasized here. Participants also will experience learning in a fun way through the use of music, songs, dances, colours, cartoons and the necessary training aids.
